California Association of Hospitals and Health Systems

California Health Foundation & Trust

WALKER-SULLIVAN FELLOWSHIP AWARD

DESCRIPTION

Honorarium of $17,000, administered by the trustees of the California Health Foundation & Trust. Intended for recipient and spouse or companion for travel and exchange of ideas with health care leaders in other countries. Established in 1963 by George Walker of Walker and Company.

CRITERIA

Awarded in recognition of outstanding contribution and leadership to hospitals and the health care community. Nominees are selected by the trustees of the California Health Foundation & Trust. The fellowship makes funds available to provide the recipients with the opportunity to study health care delivery activities around the world. It enables recipients to have global access to people for the exchange and sharing of ideas. The Walker-Sullivan Fellowship is viewed as a people-to-people activity and opportunity. The fellowship provides funds to publish findings and observations, and recipients are expected to prepare both written and oral reports on their fellowship study.
