Faculty

From the law offices of Hosper, Lundy & Bookman, PC:
- Lloyd Bookman is a partner in HLB Los Angeles Office. Since 1979, his practice has involved exclusively the representation of health care providers in a wide variety of complex reimbursement, regulatory and transactional matters. He is a nationally recognized expert on Medicare and Medicaid reimbursement and has served as lead counsel in many highly significant cases.
- Patrick Hooper is a partner in HLB’s Los Angeles office. Since 1976, he has specialized in litigation against the federal and state governments involving health care matters. He has been involved in hundreds of administrative and judicial proceedings throughout the country as the lead trial and appellate attorney. His cases include some of the most important and complex Medicare, Medicaid, and CHAMPUS (HCPCS) cases in the health care field.
- Joseph LaMagna is a partner in HLB’s San Diego Office. The focus of his practice includes litigation, defense of audits and government investigations; and representation of hospitals and other providers in payment disputes with managed care entities and other payors.
- Stephen K. Phillips is a partner in HLB’s San Francisco Office. His practice is focused on healthcare technology and privacy transactions, compliance counseling and other business transactions. He is the chair of the firm’s Technology Practice Group.
- Amanda L. Hayes-Kibreab is a partner in HLB’s Los Angeles Office. Her practice is focused on complex business litigation, arbitration and dispute resolution on behalf of providers, with a particular emphasis on managed care litigation.
