OCCHV EARLY CALL

ANNUAL MINI CONFERENCE - PHOENIX CLUB – MONDAY, JUNE 21,

2011

Reserve the date NOW on your planning calendar! We have a terrific program planned for the most important OCCHV General Meeting of the year. We will be Sharing and Exchanging Ideas that can help every Orange County Hospital. BE THERE!

Here are the program highlights:

- Keynote Message: Joan Cardellino, CAVS, Director, Volunteer Services – California Association of Hospitals and Health Systems in Sacramento (CAHHS), will set the tone for the day speaking on "Times On the Healthcare Scene are a- Changing" and how volunteers are adapting to the new realities in Orange County and across the entire state and country. Joan knows the real challenges for large, small, profit and non-profit hospitals. Volunteers need to be prepared for change. We are fortunate to have this terrific speaker for our meeting.

"Phoenix Rising through Sharing" – an outstanding panel of our own OCCHV DVSs covering the volunteer application process, interviews, orientation, placement, and follow-up to keep our volunteers enthusiastic and in step with these changing times.

"Orange County's Best" – Volunteer committee chairs covering outstanding programs were selected to talk about their best programs – how they work – why they work – how you can borrow the best and the brightest ideas for your hospital's volunteer program. Here are the broad areas to be covered: Substitutes; Cross Training; No One Dies Alone; Cancer Center Compassionate Care; Volunteer Recognition; Youth Program.

This is a program not to be missed! Talk it up with your fellow volunteers. You will be sorry if you miss this meeting.

The regular OCCHV Meeting CALL will be going out on schedule the 1st week in May with details on schedule times, directions to the Phoenix Club, planned menu, and sign-up sheet for your volunteers.

See you there!
