Notwithstanding the provisions of Sections 4011 and 4011.5, when it appears that the prisoner in need of medical or surgical treatment necessitating hospitalization or in need of medical or hospital care was arrested for, charged with, or convicted of an offense constituting a misdemeanor, the court in proceedings under Section 4011 or the sheriff or jailer in action taken under Section 4011.5 may direct that the guard be removed from the prisoner while he is in the hospital. If such direction is given, any such prisoner who knowingly escapes or attempts to escape from such hospital shall upon conviction thereof be guilty of a misdemeanor and punishable by imprisonment for not to exceed one year in the county jail if such escape or attempt to escape was not by force or violence. However, if such escape is by force or violence such prisoner shall be guilty of a felony and punishable by imprisonment in the state prison, or in the county jail for not exceeding one year; provided, that when such second term of imprisonment is to be served in the county jail it shall commence from the time such prisoner would otherwise be discharged from such jail.

4011.9 PC YES NO

Notwithstanding the provisions of Sections 4011 and 4011.5, when it appears that the prisoner in need of medical or surgical treatment necessitating hospitalization or in need of medical or hospital care was arrested for, charged with, or convicted of an offense constituting a felony, the court in proceedings under Section 4011 or the sheriff or jailer in action taken under Section 4011.5 may direct that the guard be removed from the prisoner while he is in the hospital, if it reasonably appears that the prisoner is physically unable to effectuate an escape or the prisoner does not constitute a danger to life or property.
